Update on Notices of Breach issued to NetAlliance

27 November 2020

On 27 November 2020, auDA withdrew the Notices of Breach issued to the NetAlliance group of registrars: NETALLIANCE PTY LIMITED, NETALLIANCE DOMAIN NO 1 PTY LIMITED and ZIPHOSTING PTY LTD (Registrars).

The Notices of Breach were issued to the Registrars on 13 November 2020 for failing to meet the Accreditation Criteria outlined in their respective Registrar Agreements.

auDA has received written confirmation from the Registrars that the breaches identified in the Notices of Breach have been rectified and that the Registrars have returned to compliance with their Registrar Agreements.

About auDA:

.au Domain Administration Limited (auDA) is a not-for-profit organisation that works with a range of stakeholders including industry, government and the Australian and International community to develop the rules for and administer the .au country code Top Level Domain (ccTLD). The .au ccTLD is a key to part of Australia's digital infrastructure, and auDA is endorsed by the Australian Government, and has an agreement with the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN), to ensure that the .au domain namespace is a secure, reliable and trusted Australian public asset for all Internet users.
