

auDA PUBLISHED POLICYPolicy Title: APPLICATION OF auDA PUBLISHED POLICIES TO THE EDU.AU 2LDPolicy No: 2012-02Publication Date: 30/11/2012Status: Current1. BACKGROUND

- 1.1 This document sets out the auDA Published Policies that apply to the edu.au 2LD.
- 1.2 auDA has delegated responsibility for edu.au to the Australian Information and Communications Technology in Education Committee (AICTEC), a national, cross-sectoral committee responsible for providing advice to all Australian Ministers of Education and Training on the economic and effective utilisation of information and communications technologies in Australian education and training. AICTEC has in turn delegated edu.au policy authority to a subcommittee, the edu.au Domain Administration Committee (eDAC).
- 1.3 Registrar services for edu.au are provided by Education Services Australia (ESA), a company owned by Commonwealth, State and Territory education and training Ministers. Policy rules for edu.au, as determined by eDAC and implemented by ESA, are available on the edu.au registration website at www.domainname.edu.au.

2. auDA PUBLISHED POLICIES APPLYING TO EDU.AU

- 2.1 For reasons of efficiency and convenience, auDA and AICTEC have agreed that some of the auDA Published Policies for open 2LDs should also apply to edu.au. These are listed in Schedule A. Any variation to Schedule A must be agreed by both auDA and AICTEC.
